GOING IT BLIND.

A Blind Man Executed for the Murder of His Wife and Dies Protesting Innocence.

The Work Outlined to be Pushed in Congress---Smuggling the Heathen Chinee.

A Rejected Lover's Leap---Dynamite as an Entertainer---A Toledo Bank Fails.

A Blind Man Hung for Murder.

TORONTO, Dec. 5.—An Owen Sound dispatch says Cook Teets, convicted of murdering his wife by administering poison to her a year ago, was hanged this morning. Since sentenced, a month ago, Teets has been perfectly composed and on all occasions protested his innocense.

The "Sun" on the Great Problem.

NEW YORK, Dec. 5.—The Sun, in a notable double-leaded editorial, discusses the question of "Our Coming National Currency," and reaches the conclusion that the national bank currency must go and give place to a government currency of coin and paper money. The article notes carefully the rapid decrease of the notional bank circulation and the more rapid increase in coin certificates.

Poor Satisfaction.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Dec. 5.—Leo Heller, a young iron worker, attempted to kill Miss Inn, in the office of Justice of the Peace Dunning, but was prevented by the latter, when he deliberately shot himself dead. He had been paying attention to the girl, who tired of him. He threatened her and she had him arrested therefore Heller and Squire Dunning and the girl were alone in the office preparatory to the trial when Heller drew a revolver and pointed it at the girl saying, "I'll give you satisfaction." Dunning sprang at him and prevented him from killing Miss Inn but could not keep him from killing himself.

A Terrible Dynamite Explosion.

DOVER, Dec. 5.—Later particulars from Straffordshire state that Stephen Young, in whose house the explosion was previously reported to have occurred, had a party last night. There was dynamite for blasting purposes on the shelf. One of the party, to scare the rest, fired a revolver and the jar caused the explosion of the dynamite. The house was blown to atoms and burned up. One person, a Frenchman employed by Young, was killed outright and seven were wounded. Bonds to the amount of $50,000 and an amount of railroad stock were destroyed. Mrs. Sadie Greenfield, of Rochester, was blown through a window and her head cut open. Several of those injured will probably die. Among them is Dr. Stephen Young, of Rochester, and his uncle, Stephen Young, at whose house the explosion occurred.

Congressional Chatter.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—The Star says: It seems to have settled down to a certainty that this will be a working session and much important matter before the house in the committees will be disposed of during the winter. Buckner says the banking and currency committee will try to pass through the house some bill to secure a national bank system and avert financial depression. He expects to meet with opposition but says something must be done. Whatever action is taken, however, will be before the 15th, for after that it will be too late to get a day assigned.

The inter state commerce bill will possibly not occupy more than two days. Cobb will make an effort to pass some additional land grant forfeiture bills. There will be an effort made to pass the bankruptcy bill. The canal men are preparing for a fight to get their bills through this session.

The hardest work will be done by those interested in the Hennepin, the Erie and the Maryland and Delaware canals. The Nicaragnan canal men will attempt to have some action taken by the house to the advancement of their interest. There will be an effort made also to pass the bill restraining the coinage of silver dollars.

Smuggling Chinamen.

BOSTON, Dec. 5.—A special telegram from Victoria, B. C., says that five days since it was reported that the three-ton sloop, which left here with nineteen Chinamen, who were to be smuggled, and two white men, for the American shore, had been swamped and all hands lost. In addition to this disaster two other white men, who left Foul Bay seven weeks ago in a leaky vessel with twelve Chinamen for Washington territory, have not since been heard of and all are supposed to have drowned. The temptation to smuggle Chinamen across the border is very strong, as for each one landed the owners receive $25.

Failures.

BOSTON, Dec. 5.—The Standard File company at South Hanon is embarrassed. The works are attached for $28,000. The embarrassment will be only temporary, as the company is backed by a large capital.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Dec. 5.—W. S. Tower, general jobbing tobacconist, of this city, made a general assignment to Earl B. Putnam.

FOR THE WEEK.

NEW YORK, Dec. 5.—The failures throughout the country as reported to R. G. Dunn & Co. for the last seven days are as follows: United States 294; Canada 36; total 330. This is an increase of 71 over last week. The increase is generally in the middle sections of the country but particularly noticeable in southern and western states.

WINDSOR, Ont., Dec. 5.—A malignant epedemic of diphtheria is causing serious mortality in parts of east and west Sandwhich and several places in that vicinity.

The Franchise Bill Passed.

LONDON, Dec. 5.—The franchise bill was read the third time in the house of lords this afternoon and was subsequently passed by that body.

President of Switzerland.

BERNE, Dec. 5.—M. Schenck has been elected president of the Swiss confederation for 1885 and M. Downer vice president. Both are radicals.

Too Busy.

MONTREAL, Dec. 5.—President-elect Cleveland declined an invitation to attend the carnival, owing to a pressure of business.

Levy Married.

ERIE, Pa., Dec. 5.—Levy, the cornetist, was married last evening to Stella Costa, his soprano.

On to Washington.

NEW YORK, Dec. 5.—James G. Blaine left for Washington this morning.

The Vice President-Elect Congratulated.

INDIANAPOLIS, December 4.—A delegation representing the Marion County Democratic Soldiers and Sailors' association called on Vice President-elect Hendricks this evening and tendered their congratulations on the result of the recent election. In response to the addressing spokesman of the party Mr. Hendricks said:

I am very much gratified that you have been made a medium by your comrades of expressing to me the sentiments of your own speech and of the address of your association. You would distrust my sincerity did I say that I am not grateful at the honor you have done me, and congratulations from you and your comrades are specially gratifying when I consider the fact that you and I shared in the contest of the summer, the greatest political contest our country has ever known, with success. We have come from that field of contest soaring in its responsibilities and its glories. You have referred to one characteristic of the contest—a characteristic which I hope never to see repeated in our country the personal attacks and slanders that have been indulged in are unworthy of American politics. I have not troubled to answer the misrepresentations to which I have been subjected. Four times have these fabrications been before the people of Indiana, and four times they have given them the lie. As to these fabricat ons, I have not turned to the right nor to the left, and I will now but briefly report them. During the first month of the war I found it necessary to correct one of the misrepresentations. At that time I used the following language:

"Since the war commenced I have uniformly said that the authority of the government of the United States is not questioned in Indiana, and I regard it as my duty to the citizens of Indiana to respect and maintain that authority, and to give to the government her honest and earnest support in the prosecution of the war, until by the providence of God, it may be brought to an honorable conclusion, and blessings of peace may be restored; our country must, suffering until that time all controversies in relation to the causes and responsibilities of the war. No man will feel deeper solicitude in the welfare and proud bearing of the Indiana soldiers in the conflict of arms, to which they are called, than myself."

The sentiments thus expressed, guided my conduct throughout the war. One of the political leaders of the times has charged that I failed in duty in opposing the law for the draft to opposition to the draft. I plead guilty. I found the army volunteers encouraged by suitable bounties, and during the first month of my service to the United States as mate, I said:

"I desire to express the opinion that congress ought to encourage volunteering rather than rely upon what of necessity must be an unpopular measure of the government, the draft."

I did not regard the draft as a reliable support for an army prior to that time. One hundred and twenty-five thousand men had been drafted and 8,000 entered the service under the draft; 10 000 substitutes were furnished and 20,000 were induced to volunteer by bounties, which combinations enabled the department to pay. A draft of 125,000 resulted with 36,000 soldiers in the field. I believed then, and have believed ever since, that volunteers, encouraged by suitable bounties, relieving them from anxieties about the provision for their homes were for the best assurance of support to the army. The same politicians to whom I have referred speaking of myself, said, "he did not vote in favor of any measure that looked to the carrying on of the war."

I will refer but to two acts in the senate in answer. On the 23d of April, 1864, I offered an amendment to the army appropriation bill, to increase the pay of the soldiers and non-commissioned officers reasonably in proportion to the depreciated condition of the currency. I thought that the proposition was an encouragement to army enlistments. My colleague, Colonel Lane, voted with me on that subject. On the same day I voted for the great appropriation bill for the army for the coming year. I believe it was the largest appropriation bill ever passed in this government, $530,000'000. I believed it was, and it was, an appropriation which caused the army to close the war; under which many battles were fought; under which Sherman marched to the sea and the surrender was made to Grant.

Mr. Hendricks closed by returning thanks for the call. The delegation then shook hands with the vice-president-elect and social courtesies were exchanged.

A BANG-UP TIME.

A Fifth Ward Wedding Winds up in a Free Fight---The Sluggers Jugged by the Police.

Last night Henry Lindemeyer and Miss Mary Rissing were married at the residence of Ernest Miller, on West Main street. The premises were not commodious enough for the assembly and the adjoining home of Christ Siebold was ushered into service. Right here the festivities warmed up and success to the young married people was proposed over numerous beers. The party danced at Mr. Siebold's house and refreshed at Miller's house. Plump, rosy-cheeked frauleins were whirled about in the dizzy waltz and the revelry was at its height when some fellow "doused the glim" and a dozen men were banged on the face. The pugilistic business became general and the participants adjourned to the yard and into the residence of Miller, where windows were smashed and furniture used to club all who could not be slugged successfully. Officers Lee and Wehrenburg raided the premises and arrested Henry Cook, Wm. Stagmeyer, Wm. Siedenbrink, Henry Hagemann, John Flood, Christ Tagtmeyer, Dell Estry and Fred Tegtmeyer. The young men were fined at police court this morning, where the whole wedding party testified as witnesses. The guests showed up with a broken nose, a black eye, a battered face or a bloody scalp in testimony of the bang-up good time they had. The officers found a silver watch in the yard about the Miller house.

A Scandal of Three Nations.

An evening or two ago THE SENTINEL stated that Mrs. Richard Allen had left her husband's house and taken his money. That was Mr. Allen's story. This morning Mrs. Allen called at this office and related a rather sensational case. She is an Irish girl, named Mary Welch, who while en route from Massachusetts to her old home near Tralee, County Kerry, Ireland, met Allen at Liverpool. The man, she says, made love to her, represented himself as a widower, and proposed they get married. The ceremony was performed by some one and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Allen came on to this city. Here Allen abandoned her to roam about the country and when he returned the woman refused to live with him, because she learned in the meantime that his first wife was alive in England. Mrs. Allen No. 2 has a photograph of her deceiver's first wife and now proposes to put the matter in the hands of the officers. Miss Welch abandoned a lover in Ireland and bitterly bewails her flight with Allen, who is still in the city.

THE SENTINEL collectors will call on subscribers to-morrow. Have your money ready for them.

SHAKESPEARE SAYS:

"Therefore the moon, the governess of floods,
Pale in her anger, washes all the air,
That rheumatic diseases may abound."

Whether the "pale upon" has increased the size of her wash as the world has increased in population may be a question, but its a fact beyond question that Rheumatism has increased until it does "abound" in "all the air," and thousands of human beings are bound and tormented with the excruciating pains that only Rheumatism and Neuralgia can inflict.

ATHLOPHOROS

is the ONLY conqueror of these terrible diseases, as hundreds gladly testify.

Mr. O. Thornton, C. R.-I. & P. R. R. Machine Shops, Stuart, Iowa, writes:

"Athlophoros greatly relieved me of distressing Rheumatism, and I willingly recommend it as a remedy that will cure rheumatism. I was confined to my bed, and after taking one bottle was able to go to work."

Even if so strange that at first you may hardly believe it, it IS true that "ATHLOPHOROS" will do for YOU just what it has done for others.

If you cannot get ATHLOPHOROS of your druggist, we will send it express paid, on receipt of regular price—one dollar per bottle. We prefer that you buy it from your druggist, but if he hasn't it, do not be persuaded to try something else, but order at once from us, as directed.

FRIDAY, DEC. 5, 1884.

OFFICIAL PAPER COUNTY AND CITY.

THE value of manufactured products in Indiana increased $3,000,000 for 1884 over 1883.

THERE are twenty-eight distilleries and forty-eight breweries and malt houses in Indiana.

IT costs $120 per year for the maintenance of each person at the reform school of the state.

THE Hon. Wade Hampton has no opposition for re-election to the United States senate from South Carolina.

JACOB RANNELS, a wealthy merchant and cattle dealer at Perrysburgh, Ind., killed himself Tuesday night by first taking arsenic and then cutting his throat.

A LITTLE late: The New York Young Republican club voted Wednesday night to expunge from its rolls the names of persons who voted against Blaine and Logan.

SENATOR VOORHEES has received a telegram from his son announcing that all doubt of his election as a delegate to congress from Washington Territory has been removed.

THE Georgia legislature passed a resolution Wednesday empowering the clerk of the house to employ women to perform clerical work. In the debate the opening of every avenue of labor to women was fully indorsed.

THE aggregate material wealth and population of twenty states and territories, whose area is natural to the port of Galveston as deep water outlets, are as follows: The wealth, $7,976,000,000; population, 11,276,000. These figures embrace the entire Pacific Slope, also Colorado, Nebraska and Minnesota, but does not include Louisiana or any territory east of the Mississippi.

THE official returns from all the states have been reported and they show a plurality in the popular vote of 70,980 for Cleveland and Hendricks. This result is obtained by adding the fusion vote in each state where the Butler and Blaine tickets or where the Butler and Cleveland tickets were fused, to the party with which the fusion was made. Otherwise a reliable computation of the vote could not be obtained. In 1880 the republican plurality was 3,033. The increase in the vote for the four years is 775,571, of which the democrats received 459,639 and the republicans 385,676. The greenback party has lost 189,857 votes and the prohibitionists have gained 120,518. In 1880 there was one vote in the states for each 5 35-100 of the population—49,369,965. Taking 5 35-100 as the basis, we have at present a population, not including the territories, of 53,461,714, an increase of 4,091,749.

INDIANA'S FAVORITE.

The New York Sun, in commenting upon an article from an Indianapolis correspondent to the Pioneer Press, is moved to say, when referring to the motive that prompted the nomination of Governor Hendricks at Chicago for vice president, that "It was to carry Indiana that Mr. Hendricks was nominated. Mr. English had been tried in 1880 and had proved a failure. There was a considerable effort at Chicago to put Mr. McDonald on the ticket, but the convention mistrusted his ability to carry the state and turned instead, for a second time to Mr. Hendricks, Indiana's favorite son. The hope was that the Indiana democracy, so mighty when harmonious and united, would support him undividedly, and that the fifteen electoral votes, which were given to the democrats in 1876 and lost in 1880, would be regained in 1884. The result justified the wisdom of this calculation.

"But are the friends of Mr. Hendricks also right when they say that if Mr. Hendricks had not been nominated for vice president afte: Grover Cleveland had been nominated for president, New York would have gone republican, instead of democratic? Probably they are right in this also."

However much weight others may attach to the argument that Mr. Hendricks carried New York also, Indianians are so well satisfied with the result at home and the success of the national ticket that they have no desire to claim everything else in sight. That Mr. Hendricks did a great work in Indiana is an admitted fact, and that he is nearer the Hoosier heart than any other man is equally true.

When the Plumed Knight came into Indiana with drawn sword, drums beating, banners flying and cannons booming to take it by storm, the Hoosier statesman put on his war paint, the toesin of war was quickly sounded, which met with a ready echo from every hilltop and valley, so that the man from Maine soon left, his last estate being worse than the first. Looking back at his departure he saw Indiana's favorite son on his trail, everywhere expounding the law and the prophets and the multitude crowding around him to hear and understand the wonderful works that were to be done on the 4th day of November. Blaine then called out with a loud voice: "Logan, Logan, come quick or we perish! Bring with you the bloody shirt, the tariff reformers have overwhelmed me." The faithful Logan came, and flirted the reserve garment, but alas! like Calkins, the flashy and airy Calkins, who tried to stand up before the invincible Gray, he, too, finding Indiana a hard road to travel, soon became weary and left the state in disgust. N.

Many who have long suffered from indescribable feelings of distress, lame back, aching joints, sores, swellings, weakness of the urinary and digestive organs, unnatural feelings of weariness, headache, nervousness, despondency, disturbing dreams, partial insanity, etc., after doctoring liver, kidneys, nerves and brain, with the various quack nostrums of the day, and being nearly frightened to death by their alarming advertisements, quietly began using Dr. Guysott's Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla, and were agreeably surprised to quickly find themselves restored to perfect health. No other remedy equals it.

Al. Bryant, a Tippecanoe county farmer, was robbed by highwaymen on the streets of Lafayette.

Tired, Languid, Dull,
Exactly expresses the condition of thousands of people at this season. The depressive effect of warm weather and the weak condition of the body can only be corrected by the use of a reliable tonic and blood purifier like Hood's Sarsaparilla. Why suffer longer when a remedy is so close at hand? Take Hood's Sarsaparilla now. It will give you untold wealth in health, strength and energy.

The United States uses three times as much paint as any other country.

Postage Stamps
Are now to be sold at many regularly appointed places in each of the large cities. A wonderful convenience this will be to the public. As they will be generally at the drug stores, the people who call for stamps can also call for Brown's Iron Bitters, the great family tonic. Wiesson & Leonard, druggists, at Willimantic, Conn., say: "We sell no tonic, invigorator or blood purifier, that gives such satisfaction as Brown's Iron Bitters."

The perpetual motion problem has cost $50,000,000 and isn't solved yet.

The trial of Orth Stein, formerly of Lafayette, for the killing of George Fredericks, proprietor of the Kansas Theatre Comique, has been fixed for December 15. Stein, it will be remembered was the editor of the Kansas City Evening Star, when Nelson and Morse were proprietors, and killed Fredericks in a quarrel over a woman with whom both were enamored. His plea was self defense. The jury sentenced him to twenty-five years in the penitentiary. A new trial was granted him by the supreme court. Stein was then released on bonds, and went to Leadville, where he is engaged in newspaper work. He is confident of acquittal.

No one can be ill if the blood is pure. Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla root have long been recognized as blood purifiers. Don't be humbugged by the advertisements of the many quack bitters, but occasionally use Dr. Guysott's Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla, and you will live to a good old age free from all the distress of mind and body. Many of our best citizens who long suffered from bad blood indicated by weak kidneys, indigestion, sores, aches, etc., owe their recovery to the use of this remedy.

Strong language is ofttimes ineffective as well as indelicate, but the language of Mrs. Thomas Strong, of Bangor, Me., is so explicit as to leave no doubt of its truth. The lady writes: "I found Mishler's Herb Bitters the best remedy I could desire for nausea and vomiting." Persons who have tried the bitters for dyspepsia, liver complaint, kidney disease, indigestion, stomach disorders and nervous complaints are equally emphatic and unequivocal in attesting the wondrful curative properties of the medicine.

Sporting Authority.

A really invaluable specific, remarks the London daily Sportsman, editorially, for the cure of rheumatism, neuralgia, sprains and bruises is St. Jacobs Oil. It is well known in the English market, and has gained immense fame in America, Australia and all parts of the world.

Prices Never so Low.

Samuel Chaska & Co. are still in the lead with reductions in winter wraps that their lady friends are rapidly taking advantage of. The firm's eastern buyer was in the New York market with his money at the present depressed times and made purchases at astoundingly low prices. Cloaks, dolmans and circulars of the very latest styles have been received in great numbers and variety and are now opened to inspection of the ladies and it should be remembered that those who come first will be the most fortunate. Remember, too, that with every purchase of a dollar or upward goes a ticket for the $400 Emerson piano, which will be a magnificent holiday gift for some fortunate lady. Rheumatism Quickly Cured.

There has never been a medicine for rheumatism introduced in Fort Wayne that has given such universal satisfaction as Durang's Rheumatic Remedy. It stands out alone as the one great remedy that actually cures this dread disease. It is taken internally and never has and never can fail to cure the worst case in the shortest time. It has the endorsement and recommendation of many leading physicians in this state and elsewhere. It is sold by every druggist at $1. Write for free 40 page pamphlet to R. K. The Safest and Best Internal Remedy.

It is safe to take Brandreth's Pills at any time, but to get the best results they should be taken on an empty stomach, going to bed. It is well on the night you take them to eat little or no supper. As no two people are affected precisely the same by a like quantity of the same medicine, it is difficult to determine the dose; and it is something which must be left to the discretion of the patients. We will say, though, the average dose for an adult is from four to ten, according to effect.

For constipation or dyspepsia, one or two taken every night will in a short time perform an absolute cure. It is well to take a purgative once or twice a month as a preventive of disease, and as these pills are entirely vegetable and are made with the greatest care, we know them to be the safest and most effective purgative ever introduced to the public. They have been sold in this country for over fifty years, and have in that time attained an unprecedented popularity.

Remember they take pleasure in showing goods and giving prices and make it a point to be able to say that none go away dissatisfied. tf
